INSTRUCTIONS FOR EXECUTION OF FORM ECR-14 AND FORM ECR-15

Form ECR-14 and two Forms ECR-15 should be prepared for each case in which it is desired to place the treasurer of the County Agricultural Conservation Association under personal rather than surety bond. In preparing Form ECR-14, the following instructions should be observed:

1. Names. The full names (Christian name, not initials) of the principal and sureties should be entered in the spaces provided.

2. Residence. The residence and post office address, giving street and number or R. F. D. number of the principal and of each surety and witness, should be entered in the spaces provided.

3. Signatures. The principal and each surety should sign in the spaces provided. The signatures should agree with the typed names.

4. Witnesses. The signature of the principal and of each surety must be witnessed by two persons.

5. Erasures and interlineations. All erasures and interlineations on the bond must be noted by the witnesses, who must certify that they were made before execution of the bond.

6. Sureties. The sureties on the bond must be two in number, citizens and residents of the United States and each shall qualify in not less than the amount of the penalty of the bond. When a surety is a woman, it should appear affirmatively that she is single, as a married woman will not be accepted as surety.

An Affidavit by Individual Surety, Form ECR-15, should be executed by each surety. This form should be sworn to before a notary public or other person qualified to administer oaths, or before a postmaster.

The Certificate of Sufficiency may be executed by the county agent or any of the following-named officers: A chief clerk of any of the departments or establishments or any other officer of the United States; United States commissioner; United States district attorney; postmaster; United States marshal; collector or deputy collector of internal revenue; collector of customs; a judge or clerk of a court of record, under seal of the court; executive officer of an incorporated bank or trust company, under his official designation and the seal of the bank or trust company; a notary public, under his seal. This certification should be made by these officers only after they have obtained accurate knowledge of the financial standing of the sureties.
